

2019 ST. LOUIS OWNERS PANEL: WHAT MATTERS THE MOST AND WHY?

The LCI St. Louis Community of Interest is pleased to invite you to attend its first 2019 Owners Panel Series: What Matters the Most to Customers and Why? Don't miss an opportunity to hear from some of the largest construction owners in the greater St. Louis area about what matters to them the most. Join us on September 10, 2019 from 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM at 8800 Page Ave., St. Louis, MO 63114.

Please register at: <https://www.linkedin.com/company/lci-st-louis-cop>

Event Name: 2019 St. Louis Owners Panel: What Matters the Most and Why?

Event Description: At the heart of every product or service is the creation of value for customers. Who defines value? Customers do! In this panel, the largest construction customers in the greater St. Louis area will discuss what matters most to them and why. They will discuss the common pitfalls that construction suppliers struggle with, as well as opportunities to improve and deliver greater value. This event is a great opportunity for local construction companies learn and reflect on how they can take their game to the next level.

Date & Time: Tuesday, September 10, 2019 from 3:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Location: Alberici Headquarters, 8800 Page Ave., St Louis, MO 63114

Owners Panel Members:

Michael McClellan
Senior Engineering Manager -
Toyota Motor North America at Bodine Aluminum

Ryan Bader
Executive Director Facilities
Planning, Design and Construction
- Mercy Hospital System

Don Wojtkowski
Executive Director Plant &
Properties - SSM Health

JD Long
Associate Vice Chancellor,
Facilities - Washington University
in St. Louis

Moderators:

Kelcey Henderson
President, Continuum
Advisory Group

Jose Garcia-Aranda
President, Alberici Global
Automotive Constructors, Inc.